DONELSON REPORTS.

NATFULLUP: 0:04 (MUSIC)

THE ANNUAL LATINO FESTIVAL CELEBRATES WITH A PARADE OF NATIONS, ARTS AND CRAFTS AND INTERNATIONAL FOOD.

VENDOR, JOSE GUIZAR, CALLS IT A GREAT TIME.

SOT (05): "People are out here moving and shaking and that's what the city is about.
That's what it is. Get out there."

THE LATINO COMMUNITY NOW MAKES UP NINE-PERCENT OF THE D.C. POPULATION,
WITH THE MOST COMING FROM EL SALVADOR, MEXICO AND THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC.

THE TWO-DAY FESTIVAL FEATURES THE CULTURE AND TRADITIONS OF SPANISH
SPEAKING RESIDENTS.
